

Single-Family Home Ownership Program Los Angeles County Development Authority Operations During COVID-19 Pandemic

The Los Angeles County Development Authority (LACDA) will continue to serve our program participants during this unprecedented time. Although the LACDA's offices are closed to the public, our staff is working diligently to ensure all program participants continue to be assisted. Below you will find the latest information pertaining to the Single-Family Home Ownership Program (HOP) operations. If you have a question that is not addressed below, please contact us via email at HOP@lacda.org. Thank you for your patience during this time.

Q. Is the LACDA currently closed for business?

A. Yes. While our offices are closed to the public, we will remain available to our current program participants and to respond to general inquiries. All essential business will continue to be conducted via email at HOP@lacda.org.

Q. I have an application currently being processed. How can I submit HOP loan documents?

A. Current program participants are encouraged to submit all documents via email to Tamar Gantt, HOP Administrator, at tamar.gantt@lacda.org.

You may also submit documents via regular mail or in the drop box located outside our Alhambra office building.

Q. My HOP reservation expired; what should I do?

A. Please contact Tamar Gantt, HOP Administrator, at tamar.gantt@lacda.org to request a reinstatement.

Q. When is the next opportunity to submit a new HOP application?

A. At this time, we have not scheduled the issuance of future HOP funding. Upon availability, advanced notice will be posted to this website and provided to participating HOP lenders by email.

Q. I am not currently a participating HOP Lender, but have a general question. Who can I contact?

A. All inquiries can be submitted via email to HOP@lacda.org.
